The Birth of a Spy Ring

Driven by greed and a misguided sense of self-importance, Ames began systematically betraying American intelligence secrets to his Soviet handlers. Ames was identified as the mastermind behind the operation, and on February 21, 1994, he was arrested along with his wife, Rosario.

The Trial and Sentencing

The trial of Aldrich Ames and his co-conspirators became a national spectacle. The evidence against them was overwhelming, and both Ames and his wife were convicted of espionage. Ames was sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole, and his wife received a five-year
